United States of America

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

19 COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, 20 United States Attorney, Karen P. Hewitt, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Rebecca S. Kanter, and hereby 21 files its Response and Opposition to Defendant's Motions to Compel Discovery and File Further 22 Motions. This Response and Opposition is based upon the files and records of this case, together with 23 the attached Statement of Facts, Memorandum of Points and Authorities, as well as the Government's 24 Motion for Reciprocal Discovery.

STATEMENT OF FACTS3
A. Apprehension4
On January 7, 2008, at approximately 6:13 a.m., Raul Torres-Garcia (“Defendant”) drove a 1982 5 white Chevrolet truck to the Calexico East Port of Entry. Defendant applied for entry into the United 6 States and presented Customs and Border Protection Officer E. Bosquet with a California birth 7 certificate and an identification card bearing the name Alberto Jose Del Muro Guerrero. Defendant 8 stated that he was going to Calexico, California to go shopping. Officer Bosquet questioned whether 9 Defendant was being truthful about his citizenship and referred him to secondary inspection.10 In the vehicle secondary lot, CBP Officer S. Baca observed a non-factory compartment near the 11 gas tank. Canine Enforcement Officer B. Pyburn screened the vehicle utilizing his narcotics detection 12 dog Slate. Slate alerted to the flatbed area of the truck. Officers cut into the flatbed of the truck and 13 found 12 packages in a non-factory compartment in the flatbed. The total weight of the packages was 14 108.08 kilograms (237.78 pounds.)15 At 8:00 a.m., Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agent Hugo Leon advised Defendant that 16 he was under arrest. Defendant was advised of his constitutional rights at 10:10 a.m. Defendant waived 17 his rights and agreed to speak to agents without an attorney present. Defendant claimed to be a United 18 States Citizen born in California. He denied knowledge of the marijuana concealed in the truck. He 19 stated that he was going to the Santo Tomas Swap Meet in Calexico to purchase a washer and dryer.
20 He said he is unemployed and that he purchases items such as washers and dryers at the swap meet and 21 resells them to make money.22 Defendant stated that he purchased the truck five to six weeks previously for $1,500 in San Luis, 23 Rio Colorado, Mexico from an unknown individual he met at a park. He said he had the $1,500 cash 24 with him to buy the truck. Defendant claimed that he had possession of his truck since he purchased 25 it, except for when he loaned the truck to “Angel Sanchez” eight days earlier. Defendant said he loaned 26 his truck to Sanchez to move some items. Defendant said he was arrested many years before for drunk 27 driving in Madera, California; he denied any other arrests. Defendant had $849 in his possession.

28 Defendant was transported to the Imperial County Jail. While being transported to jail,

1 Defendant told Agent Leon that if Agent Leon would return the money that was seized from him, he 2 would provide Agent Leon with names and addresses. Defendant stated that everything he had said was 3 a lie and that the agents had nothing for their investigation.

4 B. Criminal History

5 Defendant has numerous prior arrests and convictions under various aliases. Defendant has 6 multiple convictions for Illegal Entry beginning on September, 15, 1979, when he received a sentence
 7 of 120 days jail. On September 15, 1986, he was convicted of Illegal Entry and received a four month 8 custodial sentence. Defendant also has numerous convictions for False Claim to U.S. Citizenship, 9 including a conviction on June 1, 1984 for which he received a term of imprisonment of two years.
 10 Defendant's history in the Southern District of California since 1990 is extensive and includes the 11 following cases:

- 12 • 91CR0898-N: 18 U.S.C. §911 – False Claim to U.S. Citizenship – 21 months
- 13 • 94CR0296-B: 18 U.S.C. §911 – False Claim to U.S. Citizenship – 30 months
- 14 • 98CR2287-K: 8 U.S.C. § 1326 – Deported Alien Found in the U.S. – 33 months;
 18 U.S.C. §911 – False Claim to U.S. Citizenship – 33 months
 (concurrent)
- 16 • 01CR0210-W: 8 U.S.C. § 1326 – Deported Alien Found in the U.S. – 37 months;
 18 U.S.C. §911 – False Claim to U.S. Citizenship – 36 months
 (concurrent)
- 18 • 05CR1714-JM: 18 U.S.C. §911 – False Claim to U.S. Citizenship – dismissed; 18 U.S.C. §1028A(a)(1) – Aggravated Identity Theft – dismissed

19 C. Immigration History

20 Defendant has numerous prior removals and exclusions. On March 19, 1998, and again on 21 August 22, 2005, Defendant was ordered deported to Mexico after a hearing in front of an Immigration 22 Judge. Defendant has also been deported on the following occasions: October 23, 1997, December 2, 23 2000, October 21, 2004, February 26, 2007, and November 17, 2007.

24 D. Other Events – Social Security Benefits Activities

25 On July 17, 2008, Defendant went to the El Centro Social Security office to report a change of 26 address for the Social Security Insurance benefits for Alberto Jose Del Muro. Defendant requested that 27 the benefit checks be sent to a post-office box in Calexico, California. Defendant returned to the office 28

1 on July 18, 2007, August 24, 007 and October 15, 2007, attempting to effectuate the change of address 2 for the Social Security benefits. Defendant provided various documents to establish his identity as 3 Alberto Jose Del Muro, including the same birth certificate and identification card he presented at the 4 Port of Entry on January 7, 2008.

5 The post-office box number provided by Defendant is rented to the Apostolic Assembly Church
 6 in Calexico, California. The church pastor indicated that the person he knows as Alberto Jose Del Muro 7 is homeless and uses the church's post-office box to receive mail.

8 On February 20, 2008, the real Alberto Jose Del Muro Guerrero was contacted at his home in 9 Chowchilla, California. He verified the details of his identity. He stated that he is aware of the imposter 10 using his identity and has testified against Defendant 4-5 times in the past in San Diego, California.

11 II

12 DEFENDANT'S MOTIONS TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

13 The Government has provided to Defendant approximately 228 pages of discovery, which includes 14 the reports from the Customs and Border Protection Officers, Immigration and Customs Enforcement 15 Agent, Social Security office, summaries of the statements made by Defendant, an inventory of 16 Defendant's property, copies of the documents found in his possession and in the vehicle, and 17 photographs of the vehicle and the narcotics. The Government has also produced a videotape of the 18 Defendant's post-arrest statement.

19 (1) Defendant's Statements

20 The Government recognizes its obligation, under Rules 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B), to provide 21 to Defendant the substance of Defendant's oral statements and written statements. (Unless otherwise 22 noted, all references to "Rules" refers to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.) The Government 23 will produce all of the Defendant's statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S.
 24 Attorney at this date. If the Government discovers additional oral or written statements that require 25 disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) or Rule 16(a)(1)(B), such statements will be promptly provided.

26 (2) Defendant's Prior Record

27 The Government has provided Defendant with a criminal rap sheet as well as information, 28 including case numbers, of Defendant's prior cases in the Southern District of California. The 1 Government thereby has and will continue to fulfill its duty of discovery under Rule 16(a)(1)(D).^{1/} See 2 United States v. Audelo-Sanchez, 923 F.2d 129 (9th Cir. 1990). To the extent that the Government 3 determines that there are any additional documents reflecting Defendant's prior criminal record, the 4 Government will provide those to Defendant.

5 The Government will disclose in advance of trial the general nature of any "other bad acts" 6 evidence that the United States intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b). Evidence 7 should not be treated as "other bad acts" evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) when the evidence 8 concerning the other bad acts and the evidence concerning the crime charged are "inextricably 9 intertwined." United States v. Soliman, 812 F.2d 277, 279 (9th Cir. 1987).

10 (3) Documents and Tangible Objects

11 The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E)^{2/} in allowing 12 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy documents and 13 tangible objects that are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the 14 preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its 15 case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government need not, 16 however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th 17 Cir. 1984).

18 (4) Brady and Giglio Material

19 The Government will perform its duty under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) to disclose 20 material exculpatory information or evidence favorable to Defendant when such evidence is material 21 to guilt or punishment. The Government recognizes that its obligation under Brady covers not only 22 exculpatory evidence, but also evidence that could be used to impeach witnesses who testify on behalf 23 of the United States. See Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150, 154 (1972); United States v. Bagley,

24

25 ^{1/} Defendant requests evidence of his prior record pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(B). Rule 26 16(a)(1)(B) relates to prior written or recorded statements. The Government interprets this as a request 27 pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(D), which is the section of the discovery rule pertaining to a defendant's prior record.

28 ^{2/} Defendant makes this request under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(c). Rule 16(a)(1)(C) relates to organizational defendants. Therefore, the Government interprets this as a request under Rule 16(a)(1)(E), which applies to the discovery of documents and objects.

1 473 U.S. 667, 676-77 (1985). This obligation also extends to evidence that was not requested by the 2 defense. Bagley, 473 U.S. at 682; United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97, 107-10 (1976). “Evidence is 3 material, and must be disclosed (pursuant to Brady), ‘if there is a reasonable probability that, had the 4 evidence been disclosed to the defense, the result of the proceeding would have been different.’” 5 Carriger v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 479 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc). The final determination of materiality
 6 is based on the “suppressed evidence considered collectively, not item by item.” Kyles v. Whitley, 514 7 U.S. 419, 436-37 (1995).

8 Brady does not, however, mandate that the Government open all of its files for discovery. See 9 United States v. Henke, 222 F.3d 633, 642-44 (9th Cir. 2000) (per curiam). Under Brady, the United 10 States is not required to provide: (1) neutral, irrelevant, speculative, or inculpatory evidence (see United 11 States v. Smith, 282 F.3d 758, 770 (9th Cir. 2002)); (2) evidence available to the defendant from other 12 sources (see United States v. Bracy, 67 F.3d 1421, 1428-29 (9th Cir. 1995)); (3) evidence that the 13 defendant already possesses (see United States v. Mikaelian, 168 F.3d 380-389-90 (9th Cir. 1999) 14 amended by 180 F.3d 1091 (9th Cir. 1999)); or (4) evidence that the undersigned Assistant U.S.
 15 Attorney could not reasonably be imputed to have knowledge or control over. See United States v.
 16 Hanson, 262 F.3d 1217, 1234-35 (11th Cir. 2001). Brady does not require the Government “to create 17 exculpatory evidence that does not exist,” United States v. Sukumolahan, 610 F.2d 685, 687 (9th Cir.
 18 1980), but only requires that it “supply a defendant with exculpatory information of which it is aware.”
 19 United States v. Flores, 540 F.2d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1976).

20 An agreement that the Government makes with a witness for testimony in exchange for money 21 or in exchange for favorable treatment in the criminal justice system is generally subject to disclosure 22 as impeachment evidence under Brady and Giglio. See United States v. Kojayan, 8 F.3d 1315, 1322-23 23 (9th Cir. 1993); Benn v. Lambert, 238 F.3d 1040, 1054-60 (9th Cir. 2002). The Government is not 24 aware of any Giglio information related to this case. If the Government discovers the existence of 25 Giglio information, the information will be provided to the Defendant.

26 (5) Report of Scientific Tests or Examinations and Expert Reports

27 At this time, the only scientific test that the Government is aware of is an analysis of the 28 marijuana by the DEA laboratory. The Government has not yet received the results of that analysis, but

1 will provide Defendant with the results of any scientific tests or examinations in accordance with Rule 2 16(a)(1)(F) when those tests results are received. In addition, if other experts will testify at trial, the 3 United States will comply with its obligation under Rule 16(a)(1)(G) to provide a written summary of 4 such testimony in advance of trial.

5 (6) Request for Preservation of Evidence

6 The Constitution requires the Government to preserve evidence “that might be expected to play 7 a significant role in the suspect’s defense.” California v. Trombetta, 467 U.S. 479, 488 (1984). To 8 require preservation by the Government, such evidence must (1) “possess an exculpatory value that was 9 apparent before the evidence was destroyed,” and (2) “be of such a nature that the defendant would be 10 unable to obtain comparable evidence by other reasonably available means.” Id. at 489; see also Cooper 11 v. Calderon, 255 F.3d 1104, 1113-14 (9th Cir. 2001).

12 The Government has made every effort to preserve evidence it deems to be relevant and material 13 to this case, including sending a letter to the agency in charge on April 15, 2008, requesting the specific 14 preservation of evidence. Any failure to gather and preserve evidence, however, would not violate due 15 process absent bad faith by the Government that results in actual prejudice to the Defendant. See 16 Illinois v. Fisher, 540 U.S. 1174, 124 S.Ct. 1200 (2004) (per curiam); Arizona v. Youngblood, 488 U.S.
 17 51, 57-58 (1988); United States v. Rivera-Relle, 322 F.3d 670 (9th Cir. 2003); Downs v. Hoyt, 232 F.3d 18 1031, 1037-38 (9th Cir. 2000).

19 The Government has no objection to the preservation of the agents’ handwritten notes, if there 20 are any. See United States v. Harris, 543 F.2d 1247, 1253 (9th Cir. 1976) (agents must preserve their 21 original notes of interviews of an accused or prospective government witnesses). However, the 22 Government objects to providing Defendant with a copy of the rough notes at this time. The 23 Government is not required to produce the notes pursuant to the Jencks Act because the notes do not 24 constitute “statements” (as defined 18 U.S.C. § 3500(e)) unless the notes (1) comprise both a 25 substantially verbatim narrative of a witness’ assertion, and (2) have been approved or adopted by the 26 witness. United States v. Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-07 (9th Cir. 1980). The notes are not Brady 27 material because, as discussed further, the notes do not present any material exculpatory information 28 or any evidence favorable to Defendant that is material to guilt or punishment. If, during a future

1 evidentiary hearing, certain rough notes become particularly relevant, the notes in question will be made 2 available to Defendant.

3 III

4 DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

5 The Government does not object to the granting of leave to file further motions as long as the 6 further motions are based on newly discovered evidence or discovery provided by the Government 7 subsequent to the instant motion at issue.

8 IV

9 GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

10 A. All Evidence That Defendant Intends To Introduce In His Case-In-Chief

11 Since the Government will honor Defendant's request for disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(E), the 12 Government is entitled to reciprocal discovery under Rule 16(b)(1). Pursuant to Rule 16(b)(1), the 13 Government requests that Defendant permit the Government to inspect, copy and photograph any and 14 all books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, or make copies or portions thereof, which 15 are within the possession, custody, or control of Defendant and which Defendant intends to introduce 16 as evidence in his case-in-chief at trial.

17 The Government further requests that it be permitted to inspect and copy or photograph any 18 results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in 19 connection with this case, which are in the possession and control of Defendant, which he intends to 20 introduce as evidence-in-chief at the trial, or which were prepared by a witness whom Defendant intends 21 to call as a witness. The Government also requests that the Court make such order as it deems necessary 22 under Rules 16(d)(1) and (2) to ensure that the Government receives the reciprocal discovery to which 23 it is entitled.

24 B. Reciprocal Jencks – Statements By Defense Witnesses (Other Than Defendant)

25 Rule 26.2 provides for the reciprocal production of Jencks material. Rule 26.2 requires 26 production of the prior statements of all witnesses, except a statement made by Defendant. The time 27 frame established by Rule 26.2 requires the statements to be provided to the Government after the 28 witness has testified. However, to expedite trial proceedings, the Government hereby requests that

1 Defendant be ordered to provide all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable date before 2 trial to be set by the Court. Such an order should include any form in which these statements are 3 memorialized, including but not limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and reports.

4 V

5 CONCLUSION

6 For the foregoing reasons, the Government requests that the Court deny Defendant's motions, 7 except where unopposed, and grant the Government's motion for reciprocal discovery.

8 DATED: April 17, 2008.
